

(PCS) MASTER STEWARDSHIP PLANNING CASE STUDIES

(All course titles are available ON-DEMAND.)

Case Study #1: The Bennett Family

An intentional transformation journey where families and businesses are guided to discover the greatness, growth, governance and generosity in their story. The Bennett family is a couple in their early 50s with three children, and they own a business.

Case Study #2: The Craig Family

An intentional transformation journey where families and businesses are guided to discover the greatness, growth, governance and generosity in their story. The Craig family is a couple in their late 40s/early 50s with four young children, and they own a business nearing a sale.

Case Study #3: The Patterson Family

An intentional transformation journey where families and businesses are guided to discover the greatness, growth, governance and generosity in their story. The Patterson family is a couple in their late 40s with two children in their early teens; they own a rapidly growing business.

Case Study #4: The Murphy Family

An intentional transformation journey where families and businesses are guided to discover the greatness, growth, governance and generosity in their story. The Murphy's are in their late 60s with five adult children; they own a business they are planning to sell.